The 2004 National Population Cartoon Contest

Population Media Center

For the best cartoons dealing with population growth and related issues.

RULES OF ENTRY:

Cartoons should portray the relationship between human population growth and issues affecting the quality of life worldwide, such as environmental degradation, status of women, poverty, biodiversity, urban migration, food and water supply, energy, maternal and child health, and national conflicts.

AWARDS:

The grand prize winner for the best cartoon(s) will be awarded a cash prize of $7,000. Second and third place winners will receive $2,000 and $1,000 each, respectively. Grand prize winner will also receive an all-expense paid trip to NYC to attend the awards event.

Winners will be selected and notified at least three weeks prior to the awards event, held in NYC on October 5, 2004. All contest participants will be invited to attend. Winners must be present at the ceremony to accept their awards.

Winning entries will be on display at the awards event in NYC.
